

PAN-AMERICAN MASS PLANS ANNOUNCED

Thanksgiving Service at St. Patrick's Church Will Begin at 10 A. M.

Plans for the annual Pan-American Thanksgiving celebration at St. Patrick's Church, November 30, were announced by the Rt. Rev. Mr. William T. Russell, pastor of the church, today.

Mass will be celebrated at 10 a. m. by the Rt. Rev. Mr. M. F. Foley, of St. Paul's Church, Baltimore, assisted by the Revs. James F. Nolan and Thomas J. Kenny, both of Baltimore, as deacon and subdeacon.

The Rt. Rev. Denis J. O'Connell, D. D., Bishop of Richmond, will deliver the sermon. Music will be by the two choirs, the sanctuary choir, under the direction of Mr. Mills Silby, and the mixed choir, under the direction of Miss Jennie Glennan.

The musical program follows: March, Roman, orchestra and organ; Introit, figured music, R. M. Silby, sanctuary choir; Kyrie and Gloria, Hadyn's Sixteenth Mass, mixed choir; Gradual, Palestrina, sanctuary choir; Alleluia, Gregorian, sanctuary choir; Venti Creator, Wareham, sanctuary choir; Credo, Hadyn's Sixteenth Mass, mixed choir; Offertory, Palestrina, sanctuary choir; Offertory Motet, Hosanna, Granier, mixed choir; Sanctus, Benedictus and Agnus Dei, Hadyn's Sixteenth Mass, mixed choir; communion, Palestrina, sanctuary choir; Pan-American March, orchestra and organ.

ALEXANDRIA PLANS WIRES UNDERGROUND

Resolution Restricting Choice of Chief Before Committee.

ALEXANDRIA, Nov. 22.—The work of placing its telephone wires underground was begun yesterday by the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company. It is hoped that all wires on the principal streets will be placed underground eventually.

In the early spring, when its new building is ready for occupancy at 105 North Alfred street, the telephone company will move its exchange and other offices there.

Suit has been begun in the circuit court by Marion L. Walker against Louis Kaiser for a divorce, on the grounds that the defendant has been sentenced to confinement in the penitentiary. H. Thornton Davis is attorney for the plaintiff.

The lecture delivered by John Barrett, director of the Pan-American Union, before the Cameron Club last evening attracted an unusually large audience. He spoke on "The Trenches of the European War." A reception was given the speaker at the residence of Mr. Robert C. Johnson, 219 North Washington street, following the address.

It is announced that J. William May, of this city, will deliver an address before the members of the Southgate Club in Washington tomorrow evening, when the club will observe ladies' night.

The third degree will be conferred upon a class of candidates tomorrow night by Scepta Lodge of Odd Fellows.

The ladies of St. Paul's Sewing Society will hold their annual sale in the parish hall, 10th and 11th streets, tomorrow afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock.

Rather Die Than Work.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Rather than go to work for the support of his wife and four children, John J. Walker committed suicide while his wife was talking to the judge about him.

The Loveliest Curly Hair—So Easy to Have!
Such pretty waves and curls, having all the appearance of "Nature's own"—yes, you can have them, easily, quickly, if you will just apply plain liquid salerine before rolling your hair in curlers. The hair will have such a lively lustre and wholesome softness, and it will be fine and fluffy when combed out.

If you will get a bottle of liquid salerine at any drug store and follow the accompanying directions, you will be simply delighted with the result—which will be in evidence within three hours, and which will last a long time. The hair will be quite manageable, no matter in what fashion it is done up. The liquid, which is perfectly harmless, will be appreciated also as a splendid dressing for the hair.—Advt.

Food Staples Soar As Thanksgiving Nears

Butter Retail as High as 50 Cents; Pork and Poultry Both Up—Fresh Eggs Scarcer—Even Rabbit Jumps.

Pork, butter and poultry are trying to qualify as this week's war brides on the produce market.

Butter of the best grade has risen in wholesale price from 3 to 3½ cents since Saturday night, and now is retailing as high as 50 cents.

Lamb has risen 2 and 2½ cents, and one set of quotations on lamb today put lamb chops at 40 cents a pound and leg of lamb at 28 cents.

Chicken for frying today at the stands inside Center Market stood at 25 and 30 cents; the older fowl sold at 25 cents, and turkey was 30 cents a pound.

These advances, market men predict, are but forerunners of the coming general movement toward the high price of Thanksgiving dinner.

Fresh eggs today, even at the market stands, sold from 50 to 60 cents. They are becoming scarcer, retailers said, and already a few dealers are getting 65 cents.

Rates Cheaper Outside.
On the outside of the market, at the stands which cater to the cash and carry-home trade, proportional rises were noted, but the general price scale was lower.

One of these stands, sold storage eggs at 38 cents, and chicken at 25 cents, but even there turkey was 30 cents. Butter was 45 and 48 cents.

The vegetable prices at this stand were: Celery, 8 to 10 cents a stalk; chestnuts, 20 cents a quart; potatoes, $1.50 a bushel; sweet potatoes, 30 cents a peck, and cranberries everywhere were bringing 10 cents a quart.

Families which desire chestnut "stuffing" for Thanksgiving turkey are going to have hard going. French chestnuts were the only kind to be had, and they brought 25 cents a pound at most stands.

One meat stand, which quoted the lowest prices to be found, placed sirloin steak at 55 cents; round steak at 25 cents; lamb chops at 30 and 35 cents; pork chops at 25 cents; leg of lamb at 25 cents, and rib roast at 25 cents.

An outside stand gave these quotations: Sirloin steak, 25 cents; round steak, 20 cents; chicken, 25 cents; turkey, 30 cents; butter, 45 to 48 cents.

No relief is to be had from high prices from eating rabbit. Rabbit is 35 to 40 cents, unusually high for Washington.

A list of vegetable quotations follows:

Celery, 5 to 10 cents a stalk; potatoes, 40 to 50 cents a peck; sweet potatoes, 40 cents a peck; spinach, 30 cents a peck; chestnuts, 20 cents a peck; apples, 40 to 60 cents a peck, and very scarce; carrots, 5 cents a bunch; Brussels sprouts, 15 cents a quart; okra, 15 cents a pound; cucumbers, 5 to 10 cents a piece; California grapes, two pounds for 25 cents; Malaga grapes, 20 cents a pound; tomatoes, very high and hard to get; eggplant, 10 to 15 cents a piece; lettuce, 5 and 10 cents a head; oranges, 25 to 40 cents a dozen, and grapefruit, 5 and 10 cents apiece.

Dandruff Heads Become Hairless
If you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Advt.

NEW AUSTRIAN RULER IDOL OF THE PEOPLE

Karl Franz Josef May Be Most Popular Monarch Who Ever Occupied Throne.

Karl Franz Josef, new Emperor of Austria, will ascend the throne of the dual monarchy with the distinction of being the most popular monarch, possibly, that the world has known.

Absolutely democratic, with none of the traditional austerity of the Hapsburgs, and with a history first as a care-free student and later as a "model family man," he is an idol of the people.

Karl was twenty-nine years old on August 17. He is the son of Archduke Otto, who died in 1906, as the result, it is said, of his earlier indiscretions, and the Archduchess Maria, a sister of King Frederick August III of Saxony.

Family Scandals.
Both his parents came of what, if they were not royal, might have been called "bad families." Otto was notorious as a "gay blade," and the wife of his mother's brother, Saxony's King, eloped with music teacher while she was crown princess.

Becoming a lieutenant, Karl was assigned to Prague, and there won the affection of the people by his innocent love of pleasure and his democracy.

He was a lover of "girl shows" and was a "movie" fan as well.

The outbreak of the war found him a major in the Austrian army, but recently he was elevated to the supreme command of the Austro-German armies in the Carpathians and Transylvania.

Is Little Known.
The new Empress of Austria, the Princess Zita, has been little in the public eye. Those who know her say she is a delightful young princess, though not exactly cut out physically or otherwise to occupy the place which Marie Theresa made illustrious.

She was born in Pianore, Italy, in 1892. She is the only Empress of Austria born in Italy.

A daughter of the Duke of Parma, she was educated to be a doctor of science, and was brought up at the Wiesbaden, at Castle Schwarzenau, a few miles outside the Austrian capital. When she reached her teens she was sent to the Zangheren convent, in Bavaria, and later to the Benedictine convent in the Isle of Wight. She had little inclination for convent life, however, and returned to her parents.

Fell in Love.
After her tuition was complete she was received at court and fell in love with the Archduke Karl when on a visit to her aunt, the Archduchess Marie Theresa. She had played with her future husband when a child.

The day after the Princess Zita came of age the Archduchess Marie Josefa traveled in state to Pianore to ask the young girl's hand for the heir presumptive.

The Emperor Franz Josef gave his consent to the marriage in June, 1911, and the ceremony took place in the following October.

Both Hate Display.
Both love nature, music, and flowers and hate luxury and display. The Vienna court is already uneasy at the possible new departure the coming reign may bring.

The Archduchess is known in Vienna as a model wife. It is recalled how she followed her husband to all the garrisons to which his military service called him. They rented a small house when the archduke was stationed at Kolomea, Galicia, and the archduchess found her greatest joy in feeding the hens and ducks herself, letting them run into the drawing room even when high persons called to pay their respects.

COLLECTIONS OF FOIL NET SUM OF $324.52

Washington Emergency Home Benefits by Work of Capital Business Men.

Tinfoil and leadfoil, which a group of Washington business men set out to collect about a year ago, has netted $324.52.

Of this amount $149.52 has been expended by the Washington Emergency Home, the institution for which collections were made, and its receipt acknowledged in a letter containing an itemized account of how the money was spent.

The other $175 is to be forwarded to the home at once. In addition there remains tinfoil not yet collected which will later be sold, and may raise further the year's total.

Suggested by C. H. Pope.
Collection of foil was started by E. B. Eymon, Jr., upon suggestion of C. H. Pope. Mr. Eymon stated today that the collections had been made largely through efforts of George P. James, George Maynard, and Miss Simmons, of the United States Patent Office.

Plans are being made to collect both tinfoil and leadfoil on an even larger scale, and to this end receptacles will be placed in clubs and other public places.

Brings Good Price.
Pure tinfoil sells for 38 cents a pound; leadfoil for 7 cents a pound. Eighty-seven and a half per cent of the amount collected was leadfoil and the rest tinfoil.

The last shipment was made through Louis Simon to the purchaser, John T. Lewis & Bro. Co., in Baltimore, Md., without charge by Mr. Simon.

The Washington Emergency Home is located at Harcourt, Va. It houses forty-four children, and is in need of substantial help during the winter. The Rev. Patrick Murphy is in charge of the home.

Dyspepsia Gone Forever

The Simple, Safe, Sure Use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets Will Bring Joy to Any Stomach Sufferer.

How many quiet, afraid-to-make-a-noise, unhappy homes there are due to cross, irritable, miserable, close, that-kitchen-door kind of dyspepsia sufferers. Such men and women cannot help their nervousness, for they suffer terribly and should be pitied.

Dyspepsia, bad breath, gastritis, catarrh of the stomach, pains in bowels, nervousness, heartburn, belching, bloating, etc., come from wrong conditions of digestive juices.

When the system exhausts its juices, when the liver, when the pancreas, the stomach becomes thereby unable to furnish the proper digestive fluid; one cannot expect this same system, without aid, to do anything else than keep on making their improper digestive products.

There is relief in Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets that means a restoration to normal health and a building up of correct digestive juices.

Go to your druggist today and obtain a box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, price 50 cents, or mail below coupon for free trial.

EARLE WILLIAMS IN THE SCARLET RUNNER

A death-defying dash against time in a "speed demon"; a thrilling flight in a balloon to rescue an imperiled girl; a nerve-racking auto race ending in the explosion of a car running at full speed.
